EXPLORE VCC'S MISSIONS CORNER

One attractive area in a corner of the Fellowship Hall is maintained by our Missions Committee to provide our congregation with current missions information. The big map on the wall shows the locations for all the missionaries VCC is supporting this year. The two notebooks on top of the credenza provide the latest information from each of our missionaries and missionary enterprises. There are even two chairs in the corner where you can sit down and read in comfort.

MEMBERSHIP?

We will be bringing perspective new members to the congregation for their approval at our May 26th quarterly business meeting. If you have questions or are interested in joining, simply call the Church Office and they will schedule a time for you to meet with Kevin before the meeting.

IMPROVEMENTS

Our Sound Room crew continues to upgrade our recording capabilities. This week Regina Bechard put the finishing touches on the set up of a mobile recording unit that will enable the crew to record anywhere in the church. This equipment will make it possible for us to record videos of Bible Studies and other presentations in the Fellowship Hall, conference room, or our classroom.

LET'S TALK ABOUT MISSIONS—NEXT FRIDAY

On Friday May 21st, at 10:00 am, I will be streaming a session focused on the topic of missions, and I would like to encourage you to join me. Surprisingly, it will not be a Bible lesson on missions, although I think it likely a verse or two of Scripture will find their way into the message. Instead, I want to speak to our approach to missions here at VCC.

With the pandemic restrictions of the past year, this discussion is long overdue. We have many new to our fellowship who may not be aware of our approach to missions. Even those who have been part of our congregation for a longer period of time may not be aware of some of the exciting things the Lord has been doing over the course of the past few months, as well as the several opportunities that are starting to pop onto our Missions radar screen.

So join me on Friday at 10:00 am, or watch the recording at any time afterwards.

Use this discussion to get a renewed sense of our vision for missions and some of the doors the Lord seems to be opening with respect to the future that most certainly needs the concerted prayer of our fellowship.

In His Grace, Kevin Redig
