LOOKING FOR A QUIET PLACE TO PRAY?

Our VCC Prayer Garden is open for prayer and solitude every day. In fact, the only time the specially-crafted gate is locked is during our worship services for purposes of security.

Prayer Garden Access

There are two ways to access our prayer garden. When the church is open, the door is at the end of the back corridor. When the church is closed the gate is beyond the main entrance across from the fountain,

Columbarium Location

The Prayer Garden is also the location of the VCC columbarium. Columbarium niches are available to members of the VCC congregation and their families. For more information, ask the church office for the columbarium brochure.

Columbarium Committee

Administration of the columbarium and upkeep of the garden is managed by the Columbarium committee: Bill Von Fabrice, Becky Sellers, and Debra Westendorf.

A PREVIEW OF COMING ATTRACTIONS

Despite the difficulties engendered by COVID--19, VCC is providing worship and study opportunities both in-church and online. And, we are entering a very busy time for our church:

- Thanksgiving. Sunday, November 22, is our Thanksgiving service.
- Missions Week. In lieu of a Mission Conference this year, we will have a missions sermon, November 29, and online missions reports and messages November 30 to December 4.
- Quarterly Business Meeting. Wednesday, December 9, at 5 pm is our fourth quarterly meeting where we vote on church leadership and approve the VCC annual budget.
- Christmas Offering. From Sunday, November 29 to Sunday, December 22, we will have the opportunity to support missions for the coming year through our Christmas offering
- Christmas Eve. On Thursday, December 24, at 5:00, we will celebrate Christ's birth.
