Weekly

CHOIR WELCOMES NEW MEMBERS

Our choir has started rehearsing again on a weekly basis. Plans for what they are going to sing and how often are still up in the air, but they are definitely working on an anthem for Easter and perhaps for a Sunday or two before Easter.

Invitation to Join

Conductor Dan Detloff has issued an invitation to all VCC members and friends who would like to join the choir, just come to rehearsals every Wednesday at 3:00 pm in the Sanctuary. The rehearsals last for an hour and a half.

Choir Presentations

Every effort is being made to maintain social distancing for the choir rehearsals and for any and all musical presentations.

One option for presentation being considered is to film and record the choir anthems. In preparation for any choir recordings, our sound room crew is working on upgrading equipment to improve the visual and sound quality for the recordings. The cameras in the sanctuary have been repositioned to enable better balancing of the view of the stage area. The crew is also acquiring several more microphones to improve sound quality.

Yoojin Muhn, our music consultant, blends and balances the recordings made by the sound room crew to prepare the final presentation.

SCHEDULE CHANGE

Next week is a hiatus week for our Tuesday, Thursday and Friday Bible Studies. Therefore, next week we will have only one streamed Bible Study, the Midweek Bible Hour on Wednesday at 10 am.

BATTERIES

The church has received a small supply of #675 hearing aid batteries. If you can use them, they are available at the church office.

MARCH DEVOTIONAL

To ensure that everyone has a chance to pick up their copy of our monthly devotionals, we are publishing two Sundays before the end of the month, instead of one. The March devotional is available this Sunday, February 21.

Note that the devotional is also available at the same time online on our website: vistoso.org

In his sermon last Sunday, Pastor Kevin challenged our congregation to make a special effort to stay in touch in these times when meeting as a full fellowship is not possible. One suggestion was that each of us make at least two telephone calls each week, especially to those members of our church family who are not able to get out, such as those who live in facilities that are locked down. But, we can carry our outreach to one another a step further by communicating uplifting messages and encouragement through cards, letters, and emails. Maybe this pandemic can bring back the almost-lost art of letter writing.
