VCC PROVIDES CHILDREN WITH SCHOOL SUPPLIES

For the past few years, the VCC fellowship has gone above and beyond all expectations in filling the Yellow Bus with school supplies for the children on the Tohono O'odham Reservation. This year, due to the pandemic, John Coleman asked us to sponsor kids at $15 each. John then bought the supplies in bulk and packed the book bags.

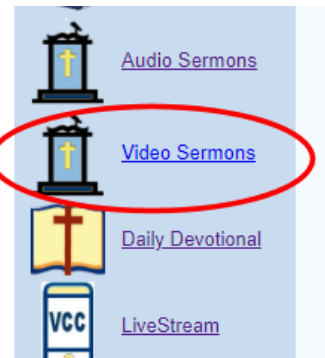

Once again, the VCC fellowship was extremely generous, donating over $1600 for supplies, and supplying more than 100 handwritten personal notes for the students. John has increased his goal of 100 packed bookbags to 150. Each bag will contain a personal note, a Bible and prayer card, a binder and paper, pencils and holder, crayons, glue, a composition book, a ruler, a calculator, and miscellaneous items. Currently 124 students, in 10 villages, have expressed a need for, and will be blessed with school supplies.

LIVESTREAM EXPANDING VCC'S MINISTRY

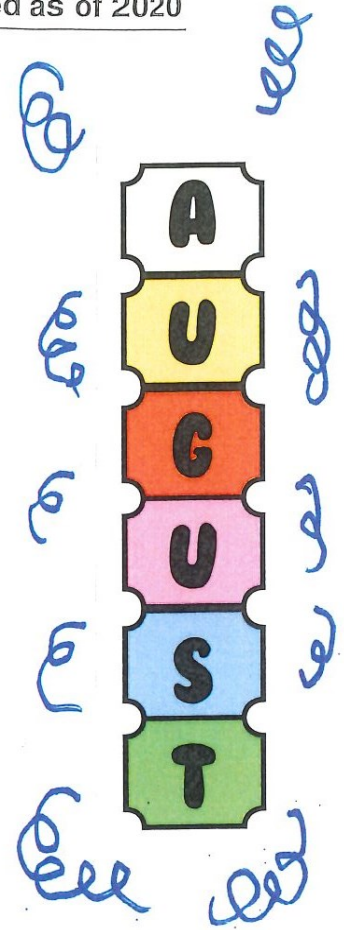

Last Sunday, 105 members of the VCC congregation attended worship in person. Plus, the congregation was joined by 120 locations tuning in via livestream. There were congregants from Mexico, Canada, and 17 different U.S. states. In addition, the number of viewers usually increases as people tune in during the week to the recorded broadcast. We expect to have the same kind of outreach with our two new livestream offerings:

- Wednesday's Midweek Bible Hour at 10 am, and available later on our livestream site.
- Friday's topical series on The Christian Life—Starting with the Basics at 10 am. This series will be archived on our web site. Click the new Video Sermons icon to see the list.
